MESSAGE FROM
ANTON ADITYA SUBOWO
President of Badminton Asia

Dear Presidents, Colleagues and Friends,

Today we all converge here in Nanning for our annual meet and this meeting also earmarks the ending of the office term for the Executive Committee. I am proud to highlight to all our members that for the past 4 years, Badminton Asia has achieved much in reaching all corners of Asia, worked together for the common goal in developing the game and maintaining the leadership for the sport in the world. Although we cherish our list of accolades, let’s not forget that there are still a lot of work to be done and having it done better each and every time.

Badminton Asia has come a long way to be where we are today. The hard work and cooperation by all our member associations through positive progress, implementation and achievement of all our programmes and events enables Badminton Asia to garner tremendous respect from our partners, stakeholders and sponsors. This may not be possible without your support and encouragement.

We all should keep our focus, goal and enthusiasm intact, constantly communicate to understand each other’s needs, giving support and a lending hand amongst ourselves to ensure we all can grow together and that Asia is always strong and united.

We all have our differences but we should not shy away from each other. Asia can be as strong as it can be if and only if, you, our members are able to stand united to “brave the storm” for Badminton Asia to move upwards, and to bring more benefits for the glory of Asian Badminton.

This Annual General Meeting should be the platform for us to embrace each other, exchanging ideas and to find the best way for us to work and grow together, which eventually the benefits that the Confederation reaps will eventually fall back to you all, Badminton Asia Member Associations.

Last but not least, I wish all delegates and representatives present a harmonious and successful meeting.

We are Badminton Asia and WE MUST BE UNITED AND CONNECTED.

Thank you and with most sincerity.

ACHIEVEMENT IN 2017:

a) Players:

The Federation is in a position to nurture good number of national players, whereby few players were given intensive coaching to participate in the Nepal International series, which was held in the month of December 2017. Prior to this international series, our players participated in the Annapurna International championship held in Nepal in the month of June 2017.

The result from these two tournaments was very effective and the Federation is gearing for more exposure of our athletes by requesting the government to sanction more fund. Further the other athletes were also given regular coaching throughout the calendar. Six national players attended a week long training and South Asia Regional championship held in Guwahati organized by the South Asia regional group comprising of SAARC Countries. Gradually gearing to uplift the standard of the players to participate in the international tournaments. With the participation in the Nepal International Series, it was an eye opener for both players and the federation, where there is a need of more exposure and talent to compete with the international athletes.

Profession : Member of Parliament, Retired
Vice President from 1993,
President from 2003 to current

ACHIEVEMENT : Japan became No 1 in BWF World Team Ranking in 2018, and we think it would be as a result of our long-term efforts to put into the elite performance program. This is the big news for us in 2018.

We started the racket donation program a few years ago, and it became stable by now. We donated rackets to a few countries last year as well. After receiving our rackets, these countries sent us emails and photos, and we are glad to see the happy-faced players who received our rackets.

We would like to continue the donation program.

Our opinion on the financial statements of the Confederation does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements of the Confederation, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements of the Confederation or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of the Management Committee for the Financial Statements

The Management Committee of the Confederation is responsible for the preparation of financial statements of the Confederation that give a true and fair view in accordance with Malaysian Financial Reporting Standards, International Financial Reporting Standards and the requirements of the Societies Act, 1966 in Malaysia. The Management Committee is also responsible for such internal control as the Management Committee determine is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements of the Confederation that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements of the Confederation, the Management Committee is responsible for assessing the Confederation’s ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the Management Committee either intend to liquidate the Confederation or cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Auditors’ Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements of the Confederation as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors’ report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with approved standards on auditing in Malaysia and International Standards on Auditing will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.
INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT TO THE MEMBERS OF BADMINTON ASIA CONFEDERATION
(Registered under the Societies Act, 1966)

As part of an audit in accordance with approved standards on auditing in Malaysia and International Standards on Auditing, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements of the Confederation, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Confederation’s internal control.

- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the Management Committee.

- Conclude on the appropriateness of the Management Committee’s use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Confederation’s ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditors’ report to the related disclosures in the financial statements of the Confederation or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditors’ report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Confederation to cease to continue as a going concern.

- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements of the Confederation, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements of the Confederation represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with the Management Committee regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. GENERAL INFORMATION

The principal activities of the Confederation are those of promoting, managing and developing the badminton sport in Asia in principles of specificity and universality.

The Confederation is registered in Malaysia under the Societies Act, 1966.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

2.1 Basis of preparation

The financial statements of the Confederation have been prepared in accordance with the Malaysian Financial Reporting Standards ("MFRSs"), International Financial Reporting Standards and the requirements of the Societies Act, 1966 in Malaysia.

The financial statements of the Confederation have been prepared under the historical cost basis, other than as disclosed in the significant accounting policies in Note 2.3 to the financial statements.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with MFRSs requires the use of certain critical accounting estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of the revenue and expenses during the reported period. It also requires Management Committee to exercise their judgement in the process of applying the Confederation's accounting policies. Although these estimates and judgement are based on the Management Committee's best knowledge of current events and actions, actual results may differ.

The areas involving a higher degree of judgement or complexity, or areas where assumptions and estimates are significant to the financial statements are disclosed in Note 2.4 to the financial statements.

2.2 New MFRSs, Amendments/Improvements to MFRSs and New IC Interpretations ("IC Int")

The following are accounting standards, amendments and interpretations that have been issued by the Malaysian Accounting Standards Board ("MASB") but have not been adopted by the Confederation:

2.2 New MFRSs, Amendments/Improvements to MFRSs and New IC Interpretations (“IC Int”) (Continued)

MFRSs, Interpretations and amendments effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2021

- MFRS 17, Insurance Contracts

MFRSs, Interpretations and amendments effective for annual periods on or after a date yet to be confirmed

- Amendments to MFRS 10, Consolidated Financial Statements and MFRS 128, Investments in Associates and Joint Ventures – Sale or Contribution of Assets between an Investor and its Associate or Joint Venture

The Confederation plans to apply the abovementioned accounting standards, amendments and interpretations:

- from the annual period beginning on 1 January 2019 for those accounting standards, amendments or interpretations that are effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2019.
- from the annual period beginning on 1 January 2020 for those accounting standards, amendments or interpretations that are effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2020.

The Confederation does not plan to apply MFRS 17, Insurance Contracts that is effective for annual period beginning on 1 January 2021 as it is not applicable to the Confederation.

The initial application for the accounting standards, amendments or interpretations are not expected to have any material financial impacts to the current period or prior period financial statements of the Confederation except as mentioned below:

(i) MFRS 9 Financial Instruments

MFRS 9 replaces the guidance in MFRS 139 Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement on the classification and measurement of financial assets and financial liabilities, and on hedge accounting.

MFRS 9 contains a new classification and measurement approach for financial assets that reflects the business model in which assets are managed and their cash flow characteristics. MFRS 9 also introduces a new impairment model with a forward-looking expected credit loss (ECL) model.

The Confederation has assessed the estimated impact that the initial application of MFRS 9 will have on their financial statements as at 1 January 2018. Based on the assessment, the Confederation do not expect the application of MFRS 9 to have a significant impact on their financial statements.

Cost includes expenditure that is directly attributable to the acquisition of the asset. When significant parts of an item of plant and equipment have different useful lives, they are accounted for as separate items of plant and equipment.

The cost of replacing part of an item of plant and equipment is included in the asset’s carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that the future economic benefits associated with the part will flow to the Confederation and its cost can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of the replaced part is derecognised. All other repairs and maintenance are charged to the profit or loss as incurred.

Depreciation is provided on a straight-line method so as to write off the depreciable amount of the following assets over their estimated useful lives, as follows:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Asset Type</th>
<th>Rate</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Computer and software</td>
<td>30%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Furniture and fittings</td>
<td>10%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Office equipment</td>
<td>10%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Renovation</td>
<td>10%</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

Depreciation of an asset begins when it is ready for its intended use.

The residual values, useful lives and depreciation are reviewed, and adjusted as appropriate, at the end of each reporting period. The effects of any revisions of the residual value and useful lives are included in the profit or loss for the financial year in which the changes arise.

An item of plant and equipment is derecognised upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use or disposal. Any gain or loss arising on derecognisation of the asset is included in the profit or loss in the financial year the asset is derecognised.

Financial instruments are recognised in the statements of financial position when, and only when, the Confederation becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the financial instrument.

A financial instrument is recognised initially, at its fair value, plus, in the case of a financial instrument not at fair value through profit or loss, transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of the financial instrument.

An embedded derivative is recognised separately from the host contract and accounted for as a derivative if, and only if, it is not closely related to the economic characteristics and risks of the host contract and the host contract is not categorised at fair value through profit or loss. The host contract, in the event an embedded derivative is recognised separately, is accounted for in accordance with policy applicable to the nature of the host contract.

Financial assets are recognised in the statements of financial position when, and only when, the Confederation becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the financial instrument.

When financial assets are recognised initially, they are measured at fair value, plus, in the case of financial assets not at fair value through profit or loss, directly attributable to transaction costs.

The Confederation determines the classification of their financial assets at initial recognition, and the categories include financial assets at fair value through profit or loss, loans and receivables, held-to-maturity investments and available-for-sale financial assets.

(i) Financial Assets

Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss

Financial assets are classified as fair value through profit or loss if they are held for trading, including derivatives, or are designated as such upon initial recognition.

Subsequent to initial recognition, financial assets at fair value through profit or loss are measured at fair value with the gain or loss recognised in profit or loss. Exchange differences, interest and dividend income on financial assets at fair value through profit or loss are recognised as other gains or losses in the profit or loss.

Loans and receivables

Financial assets with fixed or determinable payments that are not quoted in an active market, other receivables and cash and cash equivalents are classified as loans and receivables.

Subsequent to initial recognition, loans and receivables are measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method. Gains and losses are recognised in profit or loss when the loans and receivables are derecognised or impaired, and through the amortisation process.

Held-to-maturity investments

Financial assets with fixed or determinable payments and fixed maturity that are quoted in an active market and the Confederation has the positive intention and ability to hold the investment to maturity is classified as held-to-maturity.

Subsequent to initial recognition, held-to-maturity investments are measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method. Gains and losses are recognised in profit or loss when the held-to-maturity investments are derecognised or impaired, and through the amortisation process.

(b) Financial Instruments (Continued)

Available-for-sale financial assets

Available-for-sale are financial assets that are designated as available for sale or are not classified in any of the three preceding categories.

After initial recognition, available-for-sale financial assets are measured at fair value with the gain or loss recognised in other comprehensive income, except for impairment losses, foreign exchange gains and losses on monetary instruments and interest calculated using the effective interest method are recognised in profit or loss. The cumulative gain or loss previously recognised in other comprehensive income is reclassified from equity to profit or loss as a reclassification adjustment when the financial asset is derecognised.

Investments in equity instruments whose fair value cannot be reliably measured are measured at cost less impairment loss.

(ii) Financial Liabilities

Financial liabilities are classified according to the substance of the contractual arrangements entered into and the definition of a financial liability.

Financial liabilities, within the scope of MFRS 139, are recognised in the statements of financial position when, and only when, the Confederation becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the financial instrument. Financial liabilities are classified as either financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss or other financial liabilities.

Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss

Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss includes financial liabilities held for trading and financial liabilities designated upon initial recognition as at fair value through profit or loss.

Financial liabilities held for trading include derivatives entered into by the Confederation that do not meet the hedge accounting criteria. Derivative liabilities are initially measured at fair value and subsequently stated at fair value, with any resultant gains or losses recognised in profit or loss. Net gains or losses on derivatives include exchange differences.

The Confederation has not designated any financial liabilities as at fair value through profit or loss.

(ii) Financial Liabilities (Continued)

Other financial liabilities

The Confederation’s other financial liabilities include other payables and accruals.

Other payables and accruals are recognised initially at fair value plus directly attributable transaction costs and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

For other financial liabilities, gains and losses are recognised in profit or loss when the liabilities are derecognised, and through the amortisation process.

(iii) Regular Way Purchase or Sale of Financial Assets

A regular way purchase or sale is a purchase or sale of a financial asset under a contract whose terms require delivery of the asset within the time frame established generally by regulation or convention of the marketplace concerned.

A regular way purchase or sale of financial asset is recognised and derecognised, as applicable, using trade date accounting. Trade date accounting refers to:

- the recognition of an asset to be received and the liability to pay for it on the trade date; and
- derecognition of an asset that is sold, recognition of any gain or loss on disposal and the recognition of a receivable from the buyer for payment on the trade date.

(iv) Derecognition

A financial asset is derecognised when the contractual right to receive cash flows from the asset has expired or is transferred to another party without retaining control or substantially all risks and rewards of the asset. On derecognition of a financial asset, the difference between the carrying amount and the sum of the consideration received and any cumulative gain or loss that had been recognised in other comprehensive income is recognised in profit or loss.

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation specified in the contract is discharged or cancelled or expired. On derecognition of a financial liability, the difference between the carrying amount and the consideration paid is recognised in profit or loss.

(c) Provision for Liabilities

Provision for liabilities are recognised when the Confederation has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of economic resources will be required to settle the obligation and the amount of the obligation can be estimated reliably.

Provisions are reviewed at the end of each reporting period and adjusted to reflect the current best estimate. If it is no longer probable that an outflow of economic resources will be required to settle the obligation, the provision is reversed. If the effect of the time value of money is material, provisions are discounted using a current pre-tax rate that reflects, where appropriate, the risks specific to the liability. When discounting is used, the increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognised as a finance cost.

(d) Foreign Currency Translation

(i) Foreign Currency

The functional currency of the Confederation is the currency of the primary economic environment in which the Confederation operates. Ringgit Malaysia ("RM") is the functional currency.

The financial statements of the Confederation are presented in US Dollar which is the presentation currency.

(ii) Transactions in Foreign Currencies

Transactions in foreign currencies are translated into functional currency at rates of exchanges ruling at the time of transactions and where settlement had not taken place by 31 December 2018 at the approximate rates ruling as at that date. All gains and losses on exchange are included in the income and expenditure statement.

(iii) Translation of Foreign Currency Financial Statements

Foreign assets and liabilities are translated into US Dollar at exchange rates ruling at the date of statement of financial position. Income and expenditure statement items are translated at the average rate of exchange for the financial year. The translation differences arising therefrom are recorded as movements in translation reserve.

(e) Cash and Cash Equivalents

For the purpose of the statements of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents comprise of cash in hand, bank balances, demand deposits and other short term, highly liquid investments that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value. Cash and cash equivalents are stated at net of bank overdrafts and deposits pledged to the financial institution.

(f) Impairment

The Confederation assesses at the end of each reporting period whether there is any objective evidence that a financial asset is impaired.

(i) Impairment of Financial Assets

Other receivables

To determine whether there is objective evidence that an impairment loss on financial assets have been occurred, the Confederation considers factors such as the probability of insolvency or significant delay in payments. For certain categories of financial assets, such as other receivables, assets that are assessed not to be impaired individually are subsequently assessed for impairment on a collective basis based on similar characteristics. Objective evidence of impairment for a portfolio of receivables could include the Confederation’s past experience of collecting payments, an increased in the number of delayed payments in the portfolio past the average credit period and the observable changes in national or local economic conditions that correlate with default on receivables.

If any such evidence exists, the amount of impairment loss is measured as the difference between the asset’s carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows discounted at the financial asset’s original effective interest rate. The impairment loss is recognised in profit or loss.

(f) Impairment (Continued)

The carrying amount of the financial asset is reduced by the impairment loss directly for all financial assets with the exception of other receivables, where the carrying amount is reduced through the use of an allowance account. When the other receivable becomes uncollectible, it is written off against the allowance account.

If in a subsequent period, the amount of the impairment loss decreases and the decrease can be related objectively to an event occurring after the impairment loss was recognised, the previously recognised impairment loss is reversed to the extent that the carrying amount of the asset does not exceed its amortised cost at the reversal date. The amount of reversal is recognised in profit or loss.

Unquoted equity securities carried at cost

If there is objective evidence (such as significant adverse changes in the business environment where the issuer operates, probability of insolvency or significant financial difficulties of the issuer) that an impairment loss on financial assets carried at cost has been incurred, the amount of the loss is measured as the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows discounted at the current market rate of return for a similar financial asset. Such impairment losses are not reversed in subsequent periods.

(ii) Impairment of Non-financial Assets

The Confederation assesses at the end of each reporting period whether there is an indication that an asset may be impaired. If any such indication exists, or when an annual impairment assessment for an asset is required, the Confederation makes an estimate of the asset's recoverable amount.

An asset's recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's fair value less costs to sell and its value in use. For the purpose of assessing impairment, assets are grouped at the lowest levels for which there are separately identifiable cash flows (cash-generating units ("CGU")).

In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows expected to be generated by the asset are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. Where the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its recoverable amount, the asset is written down to its recoverable amount. Impairment losses recognised in respect of a CGU or groups of CGUs are allocated first to reduce the carrying amount of any goodwill allocated to those units or groups of units and then, to reduce the carrying amount of the other assets in the unit or groups of units on a pro-rata basis.

(g) Government grant

Government grants that do not impose specified future performance conditions are measured at the fair value of the assets received or receivable and recognised in income when the grant proceeds are receivable.

Government grants that impose specified future performance conditions are recognised at their fair value in income only when the performance conditions are met.

Government grants received before the revenue recognition criteria are satisfied are recognised as a liability.

(h) Income recognition

Revenue is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable, net of any discounts, rebates, retards and taxes collected on behalf of government. Revenue is recognised to the extent that it is probable that economic benefits associated with the transactions will flow to the Confederation.

(i) Employee Benefits

(ii) Short Term Employee Benefits

Wages, salaries, social security contribution, bonuses and non-monetary benefits are accrued in the period in which the associated services are rendered by the employees. Short term accumulating compensated absences such as paid annual leave is recognised when services rendered by the employees that increase their entitlement to future compensated absences. Short term non-accumulating compensated absences such as sick leave is recognised when the absences occur.

(ii) Post-employment Benefits

The Confederation contributes to the Employees’ Provident Fund, the national defined contribution plan. The contributions are charged to the profit or loss in the period to which the related service is performed. Once the contributions have been paid, the Confederation has no further payment obligations.

(j) Income tax

The tax expense in the profit or loss represents the aggregate amount of current tax and deferred tax. Current tax and deferred tax are recognised in profit or loss except to the extent that they relate to a business combination or items recognised directly in equity or other comprehensive income.

Current tax expense is the expected tax payable or receivable in respect of the taxable profit or loss for the financial year and is measured using the tax rates that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period, and any adjustment to tax payable in respect of previous years.

Deferred tax is recognised using the liability method, providing for temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the statement of financial position and their tax bases. Deferred tax is not recognised for the following temporary differences: the initial recognition of goodwill, the initial recognition of assets or liabilities in a transaction that is not a business combination and that affects neither accounting nor taxable profit or loss. Deferred tax is measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply to the temporary differences when they reverse, based on the laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset if there is a legally enforceable right to offset current tax liabilities and assets, and they relate to income taxes levied by the same tax authority on the same taxable entity, or on different tax entities, but they intend to settle current tax liabilities and assets on a net basis or their tax assets and liabilities will be realised simultaneously.

2.4 Significant Accounting Estimates and Judgements

The preparation of the Confederation’s financial statements requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities, and the disclosure of contingent liabilities at the end of the reporting period. However, uncertainty about these assumptions and estimates could result in outcomes that could require a material adjustment to the carrying amount of the asset or liability affected in the future.

(a) Judgements Made in Applying Accounting Policies

There are no critical judgements made by the Management Committee in the application of accounting policies of the Confederation that has a significant effect on the financial statements.

(b) Key Sources of Estimation Uncertainty

The key assumptions concerning the future and other key sources of estimation uncertainty at the end of the reporting period that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year are as stated below:-

(i) Useful Lives of Plant and Equipment

The Confederation estimates the useful lives of plant and equipment based on the period over which the assets are expected to be available for use. The estimated useful lives of plant and equipment are reviewed periodically and are updated if expectations differ from previous estimates due to physical wear and tear, technical or commercial obsolescence and legal or other limits on the use of the relevant assets.

In addition, the estimation of the useful lives of plant and equipment is based on internal technical evaluation and experience with similar assets. It is possible, however, that future results of operations could be materially affected by changes in the estimates brought about by changes in factors mentioned above. The amounts and timing of recorded expenses for any period would be affected by changes in these factors and circumstances. A reduction in the estimated useful lives of the plant and equipment would increase the recorded expenses and decrease the non-current assets.

(ii) Impairment of Plant and Equipment

The Confederation assesses impairment of assets whenever the events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable i.e., the carrying amount of the asset is more than the recoverable amount.

Recoverable amount is measured at the higher of the fair value less cost to sell for that asset and its value-in-use. The value-in-use is the net present value of the projected future cash flow derived from that asset discounted at an appropriate discount rate. Projected future cash flows are based on the Confederation’s estimates calculated based on historical, sector and industry trends, general market and economic conditions, changes in technology and other available information.

As at end of reporting period, the Management Committee of the Confederation are of the opinion that there is no impact resulting from the impairment review by the management.

(iii) Impairment of Loans and Receivables

The Confederation assesses at the end of each reporting period whether there is any objective evidence that a financial asset is impaired. To determine whether there is objective evidence of impairment, the Confederation considers factors such as the probability of insolvency or significant financial difficulties of the debtor and default or significant delay in payments.

Where there is objective evidence of impairment, the amount and timing of future cash flows are estimated based on historical loss experience for assets with similar credit risk characteristics. The carrying amount of the Confederation’s loans and receivables at the end of the reporting period is disclosed in Note 4 to the financial statements.

(iv) Income Taxes

Significant judgement is required in determining the capital allowances and deductibility of certain expenses during the estimation of the provision for income taxes. There are many transactions and calculations for which the ultimate tax determination is uncertain during the ordinary course of business. Where the final tax outcome of these matters is different from the amounts that were initially recorded, such differences will impact the income tax and deferred income tax provisions in the period in which such determination is made.

11. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The Confederation’s financial risk management policy seeks to ensure that adequate financial resources are available for the development of the Confederation’s whilst managing its financial risk including liquidity and cash flow risk. The Confederation operates within guidelines that are approved by the Boards and the Confederation’s policy is not to engage in speculative transactions.

The main areas of financial risks faced by the Confederation and the policy in respect of the major areas of treasury activity are set out as follows:

(a) Liquidity and cash flow risk

The Confederation maintains a certain level of cash and cash convertible investments to meet its working capital requirements.

(b) Foreign exchange risk

The Confederation is exposed to foreign currency risk as a result of its normal operation activities when the currency domination differs from its functional currency.

The Confederation maintains a natural hedge, wherever possible, by depositing foreign currency proceeds from receipts into foreign currency bank account which will preliminary be used for payments in the same denomination. Foreign exchange exposures in transactional currencies other than functional currency of the operating entities are kept to an acceptable level.

BADMINTON ASIA CONFEDERATION
(Registered under the Societies Act, 1966)

Members are currently represented by 43-member associations from 5 sub regions (2017: 41-member associations from 5 sub regions) all across Asia.

   (c) Credit risk

   Cash deposits and other receivables may give rise to credit risk which requires the loss to be recognised if a counterparty defaults on its obligations. The Confederation’s exposure to credit risk arises primarily from other receivables. For other financial assets (including cash and bank balances), the Confederation minimises credit risk by dealing exclusively with high credit rating counterparties.

   The credit risk with respect to other receivables are managed through the application of credit approvals, credit limits and monitoring procedures. Credit is extended to the customers based upon careful evaluation of the customer’s financial condition and credit history.

   The Confederation’s normal credit term granted to members ranges from 30 to 60 days. Any other credit terms are assessed and approved on a case-by-case basis depending on the length of trading relationship, the volume of trade and other management considerations.

   (d) Fair values

   The carrying amounts of cash and cash equivalents and other receivables and other payables approximate fair value due to the relatively short to USD nature of these financial instruments.

12. DATE OF AUTHORISATION FOR ISSUE

   The financial statements of the Confederation for the financial year ended 31 December 2018 were authorized for issue in accordance with a resolution of the Management Committee on 23 March 2019.

13. COMPARATIVE FIGURES

   Certain comparative figures have been reclassified to conform with current year’s presentation.

- To seek more sponsorship.
- Promoting new Badminton Stars

2.0 COMMITTEE SCOPE OF WORK

- Marketing must be an integral part of Badminton Asia. Thus, a strategic marketing plan has been put in place to ensure the value of Badminton Asia and its programmes will increase.
- The engagement of MAs and fan will also be the focus of the marketing strategic plan.
- Management and developing the brand of "Badminton Asia" is also an integral part of the plan and this has been conveyed to all Members Association.

3.0 2018 IN REVIEW

2018 has been a successful year as there were several new initiatives being taken, namely more engagement with fans through social media, focusing on promoting our junior events through live streaming and aggressively promoting of new badminton stars through our junior events as well as through our websites. However, some projects had to put on hold due to the closing down of MP & Silva sometime in fourth quarter of 2018. Fortunately, by then most of our programmes and events had been carried out.

4.0 MOVING FORWARD

Marketing must be an integral part of Badminton Asia. With strategic marketing plan, only the value of Badminton Asia and its programmes will increase. The engagement of MAs and fan will continue to be focused of our strategic plan. Thus, the plan for 2019, will mainly focus on the following:

B ase – the focus will be on creating a wider fan base, reaching to more fan through social media and conventional media.

A ctive – this will focus on active engagement through every means of media. This will ensure fan and MAs are fully aware of our programmes and activities.

C ontinuously return – with wider and active engagement, it is with the hope that there will be more opportunities for exposures and ‘eyeballs,’ and thus ensuring continuous returns.
